

Francesca Uras

eucen | european university continuing education network

Francesca Uras has a background in International Relations and Human Rights. She worked for several years in Brussels becoming familiar with EU policies and institutions. She has worked as Projects Officer at eucen since 2014, managing projects, carrying out research and analyses, assisting with the preparation of new project proposals and taking care of communication activities.